

DATA PRIVACY POLICY

The Parochial Church Council of the Ecclesiastical Parish of St Lawrence Eyam , (Eyam PCC)

Registered charity no 1136134

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

Eyam PCC is the data controller (The Church Centre, Church Street, Eyam, Hope Valley S32 5QH). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

Eyam PCC complies with its obligations under the "(GDPR)" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure, and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data including training.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity and charities we support;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications); these are securely handled by HMRC, AIMS Accountants, Plusnet, and Data Developments Software.
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running or of interest to the members of the churches at Eyam, Baslow and Foolow, and to directly seek your views concerning these and other matters affecting the church;
- To administer our website and the Peak Pilgrimage website;
- To maintain security and safeguarding including CCTV monitoring;
- To share your contact details with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the diocese and in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject (you) so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities, fundraising, services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment; legal contract eg room hire; legal obligation eg HMRC or Police co-operation; vital interest eg in a life threatening emergency; public task eg birth, death and marriage registers; legitimate interest eg to enable courses and projects within Church; social security or social protection law; or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members, or for purposes connected with the church, including in our church network of Eyam, Baslow and Foolow churches. We will only share your data with third parties outside of the parish with your consent. As part of our information processes we occasionally use Dropbox and Googledrive. Other people who are Data Processors for us are HMRC, AIMS Accountants, Plusnet, Data Developments Finance Software.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which Eyam PCC holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC of St Lawrence Church, Eyam corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC of St Lawrence Church, Eyam to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) This only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means.
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable). This only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
